

Lesson Plan No. 6

Topic: Democracy • Subject: Social Science

A structured Social Science lesson on democratic government, elections, and citizen participation

Lesson Snapshot

CLASS

IX-B

DATE

25 July 2026

MODE OF TRANSACTION

Face-to-face

SESSION

2026-27

DURATION

40 Minutes

Subtopic Coverage

Meaning of democracy, direct and indirect democracy, parliamentary and presidential systems, forms of government, importance of elections, and citizen participation.

Instructional Approach

- Begin with students' prior knowledge and a familiar definition of democracy.
- Use questioning and discussion to develop concepts step by step.
- Use visual resources to support understanding of democracy, elections, and protest.
- Conclude with guided practice, evaluation, recapitulation, and homework.

Teaching-Learning Resources: Abraham Lincoln quotation visual, democracy concept diagram, election photograph, protest photograph, blackboard, oral questioning, and student response sheets.

Topic, Objectives & Teaching Points

DEMOCRACY

CLASS

IX-B

SUBJECT

Social Science

DATE

25/07/2026

DURATION

40 minutes

SESSION

2026-27

MODE OF TRANSACTION

Face-to-face

SUBTOPIC

Meaning of democracy; direct and indirect democracy; parliamentary and presidential systems; other forms of government; elections; and citizen participation.

Teaching Points

- Meaning of democracy
- Types of democracy
- Direct and indirect democracy
- Other forms of government
- Importance of elections
- Citizen participation and peaceful protest

Objectives in Behavioural Terms

Cognitive

- Recall the meaning and major features of democracy.
- Differentiate democracy from other forms of government.
- Explain the role of elections in democracy.

Affective

- Develop democratic values.
- Respect diverse opinions.
- Show awareness of responsible citizenship.

Psychomotor

- Participate actively in classroom discussion.
- Respond to revision and follow-up questions.

21st Century Skills

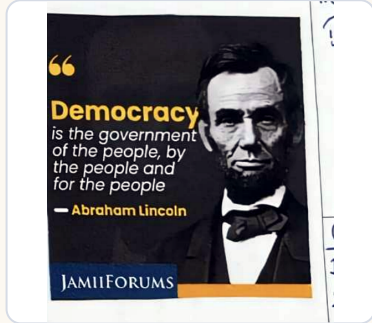

Critical Thinking

Civic Awareness

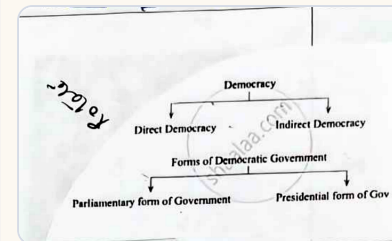

Communication

Expected Learning Outcome

Students will understand democracy as a people-centred system and recognise the importance of elections, accountability, and citizen participation.

Steps	Pupil-Teacher's Activities	Student's Activities	Teaching-Learning Resources	Blackboard Work
Focus the learner's attention	- Ask: "What is democracy?" - Ask: "Who gave the famous definition of democracy?"	- Government of the people, by the people and for the people. - Abraham Lincoln.	 Abraham Lincoln quotation used to introduce the concept of democracy.	Revision Democracy
Diagnose prerequisite learning	Ask students: "What other forms of government do you know?"	- Monarchy - Oligarchy - Dictatorship	Prompt examples Examples can be discussed briefly to connect prior knowledge with the new topic.	Government 1. Democracy 2. Monarchy 3. Oligarchy 4. Dictatorship
Relate previous learning to new learning	Ask: "What participatory institutions from ancient India do you remember?"	- Sabha - Samiti	Oral recall and association with previous historical knowledge.	Ancient participatory institutions

Declaration of the Topic: In today's class, we will study Democracy—its meaning, types, importance of elections, and the role of citizens.

Steps	Pupil-Teacher's Activities	Student's Activities	Teaching-Learning Resources	Blackboard Work
Explore	- Ask: "What are the main types of democracy?" - Explain direct democracy: people directly participate in law-making. - Explain indirect democracy: people choose representatives. - Introduce parliamentary and presidential systems as different democratic systems.	- India follows indirect democracy. - India follows a parliamentary system, whereas the United States follows a presidential system.	 Concept diagram: direct and indirect democracy, with parliamentary and presidential systems.	Democracy Direct Indirect Parliamentary Presidential
Enrich	- Discuss the importance of regular elections in democracy. - Ask why elections are held periodically. - Ask which body conducts elections in India.	- Elections help people choose representatives. - Elections create accountability. - The Election Commission of India is responsible for conducting elections.	 Election visual used to discuss representation and accountability. Election → Representation → Accountability	Election Choose Representatives ↓ Accountability

Citizen Participation, Evaluation & Homework

PRACTICE & RECAP

Excel / Discussion

Pupil-Teacher's Activities	Student's Activities	Teaching-Learning Resources	Blackboard
- Discuss peaceful protest as an important form of citizen participation. - Ask how peaceful protest can contribute to accountability in a democracy. - Ask whether protest is necessary in democracy.	- Protest can hold authorities accountable. - Examples: the Civil Disobedience Movement and a contemporary protest related to an examination paper leak. - Students may present both "yes" and "no" viewpoints.	 Protest visual used to discuss citizen participation and accountability. Protest → Accountability	Protest ↓ Accountability

Practice, Evaluation & Assignment

Guided Practice

1. Define democracy.
2. Name any three forms of government discussed in class.
3. Explain the role of elections in democracy.

Student activity: written responses in sheets / oral discussion.

Independent Practice

- What is the role of protest in ensuring accountability in a democracy?

Evaluation

- Why do you think democracy is better than other forms of government?

Better Representation

Role of People

Accountability

Dignity

Assignment / Homework

Revise the topics covered and study the features of democracy for the next class.

Recapitulation

PUPIL-TEACHER'S ACTIVITIES

- We revised democracy.
- We discussed types/forms of democracy.

STUDENT'S ACTIVITIES

- Government of the people, by the people, and for the people.
- Direct and indirect democracy; parliamentary and presidential systems.

Reflection & Supervisor Remarks

REFLECTION

Teacher Reflection

After the lesson, reflect briefly on:

- Which part of the lesson engaged students most effectively?
- Which concept required additional explanation or examples?
- How well did students respond to questioning and discussion?
- What would you modify in the next teaching of this lesson?

Supervisor's Remarks

Lesson SummaryTOPIC

Democracy

CLASS

IX-B

MODE

Face-to-face

DURATION

40 minutes

TEACHER SIGNATURE

SUPERVISOR SIGNATURE
